School News and Updates

Hero Among Us-

While we see all educators as heroes, one stood out this week. Academic Interventionist Tracy Anderson has many roles on campus. You may see her at arrival and dismissal, greeting families at our main crosswalk at the parent pick-up lane. On Friday, a car began to back up into the crosswalk, not seeing that Mrs. Anderson was crossing with a student in the crosswalk. Thanks to Mrs. Anderson's quick actions, she was able to move the child to safety by placing herself between the car and the student. Thankfully, no one was hit or injured. We appreciate Mrs. Anderson's quick thinking and heroic actions on Friday.

This is an excellent reminder for all drivers to be aware of their surroundings and to never place their vehicle in reverse while in the parent pick-up lane. Student and staff safety is much more important than the few seconds saved.

Arrival & Dismissal Procedures

Want to avoid the parent pick-up lanes?

West Point has many options for student drop-off and pick-up. These include three satellite gates that lead to the West Point neighborhood. Gates are open at morning arrival and afternoon dismissal. Parents are welcome to park and meet their students at these gates.

Check out the West Point Website for arrival and dismissal procedures, as well as alternate satellite drop-off and pick-up locations.
