Nutrition Services News

Did You Know?

All students receive one free breakfast and one free lunch each school day. In addition, our cafeterias offer optional a la carte snack items that students may purchase during lunch.

All a la carte options are Smart Snack compliant, meeting USDA nutrition guidelines and made without artificial dyes and with lower sodium, sugar, and fat than typical store-bought snacks.

Current options may include items like chips, crackers, cookies, sparkling juice, and ice cream.

Families can easily add funds through SchoolCafe, where parents can:

- Set spending limits
- Choose specific purchase days
- Control how many snacks their student may buy
- Cash is also accepted at the register.
- SchoolCafe gives families full visibility and control over student purchases.
