

What's Up, Wildcats?

Chat from 'Chini

Greetings Wildcat Families and happy Friday!

What a great morning to have Senior Sunrise! There was a full moon over the White Tanks and just the right amount of clouds to make the sunrise a perfect mix of pink and orange. This event marks the first official event for our seniors' last year at WCHS. Here's to a great last year for the Class of 2027!

Friday Night Lights has arrived! Come out and support our football, pom/cheer and band at our first home game September 4. The theme is NEON and there will be a tailgate prior to the game. On September 11, we will be honoring our military and first responders. Any military and first responders will get free admission (+1) with valid identification.

With these events, please ensure that we are still respecting our dress code.

Don't forget to get those annual student updates completed by Monday or your Wildcat will lose access to all technology.

Have a great weekend and take time to be kind!
