GOAL: PHYSICAL ACTIVITY	SY 23		SY 24		SY 25
	working on this	successfully completed	working on this	successfully completed	working on this	successfully completed
Regular physical activity in childhood and adolescence is important for physical and socioemotional health. Incorporating regular physical activity in your school(s) is an important contributor to student wellness.
Physical Activity
Physical activity of any kind is available for at least ____ minutes per day for all students.
Physical activity during the day (including but not limited to recess, classroom physical activity breaks, or physical education) is not used or withheld as punishment for any reason.
The district provides teachers and other school staff with a list of ideas for alternative ways to discipline students.

A comprehensive school physical activity program (CSPAP) is used to coordinate physical activity before, during and after school.
To the extent practicable, schools ensure that their grounds and facilities are safe and that equipment is available to all students to be active.
Through a formal joint- or shared-use agreement, indoor and outdoor physical activity facilities and spaces are open to students, their families, and the community outside of school hours.
School ensures that inventories of physical activity supplies and equipment are known and, when necessary, work with community partners to ensure enough equipment is available to encourage physical activity for as many students as possible.
Before and After School Activities
Students have opportunities to participate in physical activity before school.
Students have opportunities to participate in physical activity after school.
Physical Education
In Arizona, LEAs are recommended to review the Arizona PE Standards. Arizona does not have PE requirement, but the national recommendation for PE minutes is 150 per week at the elementary level and 225 minutes per week at the secondary level (middle school and high school level).
Elementary students (grades K-5) in each grade receive physical education for at least (choose one):
<input type="checkbox"/> 45 minutes per week <input type="checkbox"/> 60-89 minutes per week <input type="checkbox"/> 90-149 minutes per week <input type="checkbox"/> 150 or more minutes per week <input type="checkbox"/> Other:
Secondary students (grades 6-12) are (choose one):
<input type="checkbox"/> Required to take one physical education credit total <input type="checkbox"/> Will take more than one academic year of physical education <input type="checkbox"/> Will take physical education throughout all secondary school years <input type="checkbox"/> Other:
Students receive formal, age-appropriate physical education, consistent with national and state standards for physical education.
Physical education program promotes student physical fitness through individualized fitness and activity assessments (via the Presidential Youth Fitness Program or other appropriate assessment).
Students are moderately to vigorously active for at least 50% of class time during most or all physical education class sessions.
Physical education teachers participate in professional development at least once per year.
Physical education classes are taught by licensed teachers who are certified or endorsed to teach physical education.

Waivers, exemptions, or substitutions for physical education classes are not granted.
Physical education may not be substituted for any other class (e.g., dance, marching band, ROTC etc.)
Recess
Elementary schools provide at least 20 minutes of recess on all days during the school year.
If recess is offered before lunch, proper hand washing measures are in place.
Recess is offered outdoors when weather is feasible.
Recess is a compliment to not a substitute for physical education class.
Recess monitors encourage students to be active.
Recess monitors serve as role models by being physically active along with students.
Classroom Physical Activity Breaks and Active Academics
Students are offered periodic opportunities to be physically active or to stretch in the classroom throughout the day on all or most days during a typical school week.
Teachers provide short (3-5 minute) physical activity breaks to students during and between classroom time at least 3 days per week.
Teachers receive resources, tools, and technology with ideas for classroom physical activity breaks.
Teachers incorporate movement and kinesthetic learning approaches into “core” subject instruction when possible to reduce sedentary behavior during the day.
Teachers serve as role models by being physically active alongside students whenever possible.
Physical Activity Topics in Health Education
Health education is required in all elementary grades.
Middle and high school students are required to take and pass at least one health education course.
At least 12 of the following essential topics on physical activity are in the health education curriculum:
<input type="checkbox"/> The physical, physiological, or social benefits of physical activity <input type="checkbox"/> How physical activity can contribute to a healthy weight <input type="checkbox"/> How physical activity can contribute to the academic learning process <input type="checkbox"/> How an inactive lifestyle contributes to chronic disease <input type="checkbox"/> Health-related fitness, including cardiovascular endurance, muscular endurance, muscular strength, flexibility, and body composition <input type="checkbox"/> Differences between physical activity, exercise and fitness	<input type="checkbox"/> Preventing injury during physical activity <input type="checkbox"/> Weather-related safety, for example, avoiding heat stroke, hypothermia, and sunburn while being physically active <input type="checkbox"/> How much physical activity is enough, including determining frequency, intensity, time and type of physical activity <input type="checkbox"/> Developing an individualized physical activity and fitness plan <input type="checkbox"/> Monitoring progress toward reaching goals in an individualized physical activity plan <input type="checkbox"/> Dangers of using performance-enhancing drugs such as steroids

<input type="checkbox"/> Phases of an exercise session including warm up, workout, and cool down <input type="checkbox"/> Decreasing sedentary activities such as TV watching <input type="checkbox"/> How to influence, support, or advocate for others to engage in physical activity <input type="checkbox"/> Opportunities for physical activity in the community	<input type="checkbox"/> Social influences on physical activity including media, family, peers, and culture <input type="checkbox"/> How to find valid information or services related to physical activity and fitness <input type="checkbox"/> Overcoming barriers to physical activity <input type="checkbox"/> How to resist peer pressure that discourages physical activity
Active Transport (best practice is to choose a minimum of 6)
Safe or preferred routes to school are designated.
Activities such as participation in international Walk to School Week are promoted.
Crosswalks on streets leading to school are used.
Secure storage facilities for bicycles and helmet are present on school grounds.
Instruction on walking/bicycling safety is provided to students.
Crossing guards are used.
Walking school buses are coordinated.
The number of children walking and/or biking to and from school is documented.
Maps of the school environment (sidewalks, crosswalks, roads, pathways, bike racks) are distributed.
Safe routes to school program is promoted to students, staff, parents via newsletters, websites, and local newspaper.
